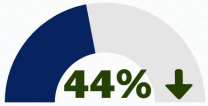
WWPHRC
Respiratory Virus & Hospital Data

December 12, 2022

This weekly report is to provide situational awareness.
Please be aware that data can change day to day and hour to hour.

Peak Census Status

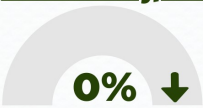


Percent of hospitals reporting their med-surge capacity is full or nearly full.

ICU Peak Census

Percent of hospitals reporting their ICUs are at capacity or nearly full.

Hospital ED at Peak Census or Bypass



People presenting at the emergency department will be seen.

COVID-19 Hospitalizations

51

Number of current hospitalizations with COVID-19.

Metro (Twin Cities) Bed Capacity

Bed Type	% Avail	12/8	12/9	12/12
Adult ICU	3.27%	15	11	16
Non-Critical Monitored	0.73%	8	6	7
Med/Surgical Adults	1.30%	27	25	29
Med/Surgical Peds	4.21%	11	9	11
PICU	4.55%	4	3	5

>15%
15-5%
5-3%
<2%

*Numbers represent current number of people boarding in ED for more than 4 hours.

*Hospital data is based on hospitals in Ashland, Bayfield, Douglas, Burnett, Sawyer, Washburn, Polk, Barron, Rusk, Chippewa, St. Croix, Pierce, Dunn, Eau Claire, Clark, Monroe, Jackson, Buffalo, Pepin, Trempealeau, and Taylor Counties

New COVID Cases

Wisconsin

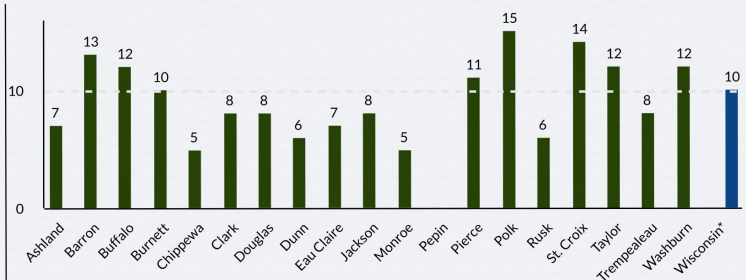
8,477

WWPHRC Counties

812

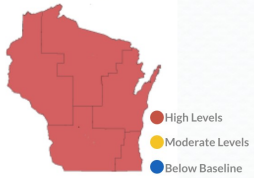
New Cases Reported in Previous Week
(December 5-11, 2022)

COVID Rounded 7 Day Percent Positivity



CDC Time Period: 12/6/22
*From state profile 12/8/22

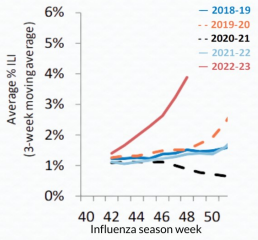
Influenza-Like Illness (ILI) Activity



- Influenza A is the predominant virus this week
- RSV activity is decreasing, although it remains high

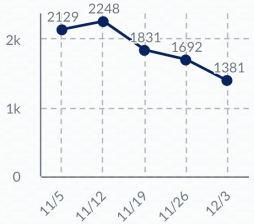
*DHS 12/3/22

ILI trends by influenza season



*DHS 12/3/22

WI RSV Detections



CDC 5-week average 12/3/22
*Antigen and PCR

All WWPHRC counties are below 35% of the population receiving one flu vaccine
*DHS 12/8/22

Western Wisconsin Public Health Readiness Consortium