

Campground and Park

Welcome to Clark County

Mountain/Fat Biking

Mountain biking at Levis/Trow Mound is some of the best anywhere in the Mid-West. With trails ranging from beginner to advanced, the off road enthusiast will find riding here well worth the trip. The trail system consists of 24 miles of single track and another 17 miles of cross-country ski trails. The more advanced trails ascend and descend the mounds, while the easier and intermediate routes lie near the bases and the surrounding forest. Winter grooming occurs on 13.5 miles of single track for winter bike rider.

- Please remember to wear a helmet at all times.
- When trails are wet, take it easy on soft ground.
- Yield right of way to hikers
- Trails are tentatively closed from March 1st to April 15th for spring thaw.

Hiking

Levis/Trow Mound offers more than 41 miles of hiking trails. Hiking can be especially rewarding in the spring and fall when emerging plant life and autumn colors abound. Favorite trails ascending the mounds include: Northface, Cliffhanger, Toad Road, and Upper Hermosa. Another challenge is Goat Dance, a 3-mile hike located just to the north-west of Trow Mound.

- Some trails are steep and footing may be loose.
- Hiking is not recommended during the Gun Deer Season.
- Hiking is not allowed on any groomed trails during the winter.
- Pets are not allowed on the groomed cross-country ski trails.
- No trail fee is required for hiking.

Cross-Country Skiing

The Levis/Trow Mound Recreational Area consists of 17 miles of groomed ski trails and an additional 24 miles of backcountry routes. Cross-country skiers will find expertly groomed trails for skating and classic technique; along with ungroomed backcountry routes. The more advanced trails are located to the northwest on Trow Mound, while the easy and intermediate trails lie near the base of the mounds. Backcountry skiers can climb the narrow and difficult single track to the tops of the mounds for a spectacular view of the surrounding countryside.

- Observe one way trails.
- Do not skate on set tracks.
- Classical skiers please use set tracks.
- Do not walk on groomed trails.
- Pets are not allowed on groomed trails.

For the most current trail conditions, please follow "Levis Mound Trail" on Facebook.

Snow-Shoeing

The snow-shoeing enthusiast can look forward to 24 miles of trail at Levis/Trow Mound. Some trails are very steep and difficult, but a very rewarding challenge. Snow-shoeing is permitted on all single-track hiking and biking trails within the Levis/Trow Mound area.

- Snow-shoeing is not allowed on groomed cross-country ski trails.
- Pets are not allowed on groomed cross-country ski trails.

No trail fee is required for snow-shoeing.
