

Off-Season Camping in Clark County Campgrounds

The reservation season is over and all campsites are walk-in (first-come-first-serve) & self-registration only. Services are reduced October 1st to April 30th. There are no office or store hours. During this time frame, campers must self-register and pay the appropriate fees posted at the fee box. Park staff will verify registrations. Self-serve firewood may be available.

Please follow those instructions.

Ice may be available when the park manager is on site.
* Snyder Campground, Russell Memorial Campground, Mead Lake Campground and Rock Dam Campground are the only campgrounds which contain a heated shower building and they remain open to campers through the completion of the gun deer season.

Electricity is on.

All other water cannot be guaranteed and will be shut off for the season when temps reach the freezing point.

For more information, please call the Forestry & Parks office at 715-743-5140.

ALL CAMPERS MUST REGISTER PRIOR TO SETTING UP CAMP!

THANK YOU!
